

Austin Way – Editorial Intern

Editorial interns work directly with Austin Way's editing staff to gain invaluable experience producing cutting-edge content for the magazine as well as possibly other Modern Luxury titles. This is a completely hands-on and intensive internship suitable only for someone who has a strong interest in magazine journalism, is a fast learner, thinks on their feet and embraces a “can-do” attitude. The ability to multi-task is an absolute must. Some responsibilities include, but are not limited to: fact-checking, story research, pitching, writing, and transcribing. Interns with exceptional writing skills will be allowed to cover Austin's culture, fashion and philanthropy scenes. Interns are an extension of our editorial team—only those that have the ability to take on the internship with a serious, professional and dedicated manner should apply.

IDEAL CANDIDATE:

- *Strong writing/journalistic abilities
- *Research skills
- *Fact-checking experience
- *Strong communication skills (must be outgoing, social and comfortable networking and interviewing)
- *Knowledge of AP style
- *Fluent in the Austin cultural scene
- *Reliable, trustworthy and deadline-driven
- *All applicants MUST be enrolled in college and eligible to receive credit for their participation in the internship program. Office hours are 10 hours a week, flexible.

About Austin Way

Austin Way is the preeminent luxury lifestyle publication in Austin, acting as the local authority on topics such as high-end retail, dining hot spots, design trends, and Chicago's top tastemakers and personalities. As part of the award-winning Modern Luxury network of regional publications, Austin Way delivers cutting-edge fashion spreads, international travel features and revealing celebrity profiles, actively engaging the cultured reader.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS: Please email your resume, cover letter and three writing samples to Lindsey Granberry, lgranberry@modernluxury.com with the subject “Austin Way Editorial Intern Application.